RBI slams banks for failing to comply with instructions

ABHJIT LELE
MUMBAI, 14 JUNE

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Tuesday came down heavily on banks for failing to strictly comply with prudential norms for financing infrastructure and housing projects of government-owned entities.

It asked banks to follow the regulator's instructions on aspects like assessing commercial viability, revenue streams, and the end use of funds in "letter and spirit".

The RBI said it had come across instances where banks had not been strictly complying with instructions on assessing commercial viability and ascertaining revenue streams for debt service obligations. It also flagged the lack of adherence to rules about monitoring the end use of funds given to infrastructure/housing projects of government-owned entities.

Banks and financial institutions have been found to violate instructions that require that in the case of projects undertaken by government-owned entities, term loans should be sanctioned only for corporate bodies.

Due diligence should be carried out on the viability and bankability of the project to ensure that the revenue stream is sufficient to take care of debt service obligations. The repayment/servicing of debt should not be from budgetary resources, the RBI said.

Banks are advised to carry out a review and place before their boards a comprehensive report on the status of compliance with the instructions within three months, the RBI added.

Venu Srinivasan, Anand Mahindra, two others inducted in RBI board

The government has nominated Mahindra & Mahindra group Chairman Anand Mahindra, TVS Motor Chairman Venu Srinivasan, Zyklus Lifesciences' Chairman Pankaj Patel, and Ravindra Dhoolakia, a former professor of Indian Institute of Ahmedabad, as part-time non-official directors on the central board of Reserve Bank of India (RBI).

Dhoolakia was earlier a member of the six-member monetary policy committee (MPC) of RBI, which sets the interest rate. The appointments are for four years and start Tuesday.

RBI board members do not engage themselves in monetary policy matters, but provide a broader vision for the central bank. "The central government has nominated Anand Mahindra, Venu Srinivasan, Shri Pankaj Ramanbhai Patel and Ravindra D. Dhoolakia as part-time non-official Directors on the Central Board of RBI, for a period of four years with effect from June 14, 2022 or until further orders, whichever is earlier," RBI said.

The RBI central board has 11 members, excluding Tuesday's appointments. Tata Sons chairman Natarajan Chandrasekaran is among members whose term ended recently.

Banerjee to host Oppn meet to discuss Presidential polls

ADITI PHADNIS
NEW DELHI, 14 JUNE

West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee will host an opposition conclave to discuss strategy for the upcoming Presidential election on June 15, 2022, where the Congress will be only a bit player — at 3 pm on Wednesday.

President Ram Nath Kovind's tenure ends on July 21. Elections will be held on July 18 for the next President and counting, if required, on July 21.

The conclave will be attended by Congress leaders Mallikarjun Kharge, Jairam Ramesh, and Ranjiv Singh Surjewala, as well as Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) chief Sharad Pawar, who has told his party he is not in the running for the President.

Interestingly, the information that Pawar has refused to be the joint Opposition candidate was conveyed to Congress by CPM (General Secretary Sitaram Veerchury, Pawar met Veerchury, CPM general secretary D Raja, and NCP leaders Praful Patel and P C Chacko in Delhi and conveyed to them his decision to not contest the election. "I have been informed that Pawar will not be the Opposition face for the presidential polls, other names are under consideration," said Veerchury.

The West Bengal chief minister has invited 22 leaders, including her Delhi counterpart Arvind Kejriwal, Pinarayi Vijayan of Kerala, Navan Patakshi from Odisha, Tulasima S K Chandrasekar, MK Stalin from Tamil

Nadu, Maharashtra's Uddhav Thackeray, Bharkhand CM Hemant Soren, Bhagwant Mann from Punjab, and Congress interior minister Jai Singh Gandhi. The CPM (General Secretary) minister of Kerala is on the list of invitees is significant as Banerjee's rise in West Bengal has been at the cost of the Left party. Many top Congress leaders are heads of parties whose primary enemy is the Congress. They might not have attended the meeting if the Congress had convened it. Therefore, the attendance sheet becomes significant.

ED quizzes Rahul Gandhi for 2nd day

ADITI PHADNIS
NEW DELHI, 14 JUNE

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi was questioned by the ED for the second consecutive day on Tuesday in the National Herald money-laundering case, with the grand old party claiming the agency action is a "verdicta politics of the Centre against opposition leaders."

Gandhi (51) arrived at the Enforcement Directorate (ED) headquarters on April 20 and was questioned in central Delhi around 11:05 am, accompanied by his sister and Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra.

His questioning began at 11:30 am.

After a session of about four hours, Gandhi took a break for an hour at around 3:30 pm and went home. He rejoined the questioning around 6:30 pm.

In a similar play of events like Monday, the "24" category CRP security personnel of Gandhi held on the footboard of his SUV as the convoy made a dash to the office in the morning. PTI

Judges write to CJI, urge suo motu action on UP demolitions

ADITI PHADNIS
NEW DELHI, 14 JUNE

In an unusual move, several former Supreme Court, and high court judges as well as senior advocates have written to the Chief Justice of India, N.V. Ramana, to intervene suo motu in the wake of incidents of violence and repression by state authorities on citizens.

While such a letter has been written to the prime minister in the past by retired bureaucrats (provoking a counter-campaign by other bureaucrats in support of the government), it is unusual for former judges to do so for political issues.

The letter comes a day after Jamiat Ulama-e-Hind approached the Supreme Court for a stay on demolition of mosques carried out by the Uttar Pradesh government against those arrested for causing violent protests last week. They were protesting against the derogatory remarks made about Prophet Muhammad by Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) leaders Nupur Sharma and Navneet Kumar Jindal. Following international outrage against the remarks, the BJP suspended Sharma and expelled Jindal.

The UP police arrested more than 300 people and registered FIRs against those protesting and engaging in stone pelting.

The letter said: "Videos of young men in police custody being beaten with lathis, houses of protestors being demolished without notice or any cause of action, and protestors from the minority Muslim community being chased and beaten by the police, are circulating on social media, shaking the conscience of the nation."

"Respected former judges and senior lawyers have signed the letter and have asked the Supreme Court to intervene to stop the 'deteriorating law and order situation' in Uttar Pradesh. The retired former Supreme Court judges who have signed the letter are Justice B. Sudarshan Reddy, Justice V. Gopala Gowda and Justice A.K. Ganguly. Justice AP Shah (former chief justice of Delhi High Court and former chairman, Law Commission of India); Justice K. Chandru (former judge of Madras High Court); Justice Mohammed Anwar (former judge of Karnataka High Court); and a host of senior advocates in the Supreme Court, including Shanti Bhushan, Indra Jaisankar, Chander Dada Singh, Prashant Bhushan, and Anand Grover.

The letter says instead of giving protestors an opportunity to be heard and to engage in peaceful protests, the state administration has sanctioned the use of force against such individuals.

"The CM has reportedly officially exhorted officials 'to take such action against those guilty that it is seen as example

so that no one commits a crime or takes law into their hands in the future. He has further directed that the National Security Act, 1980, and the Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986, be invoked against those found guilty of unlawful protests. It is these remarks that have emboldened the police to brutally and unlawfully torture protestors," the letter reads.

"The letter states that, pursuant to the statement of the chief minister, more than 300 persons have been arrested and FIRs registered against protesting citizens."

"Such a brutal clampdown by a ruling administration is an unacceptable subversion of the rule of law and a violation of the rights of citizens, and makes a mockery of the Constitution and fundamental rights guaranteed by the state," the former judges and senior advocate said.

Banerjee to host Oppn meet to discuss Presidential polls

ADITI PHADNIS
NEW DELHI, 14 JUNE

West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee will host an Opposition conclave to discuss strategy for the upcoming Presidential elections and other issues — where the Congress will be only a bit player — at 3 pm on Wednesday.

President Ram Nath Kovind's tenure ends on July 24. Elections will be held on July 18 for the next President and counting, if required, on July 21.

The conclave will be attended by Congress leaders Mallikarjun Kharge, Jairam Ramesh, and Randeep Singh Surjewala, as well as Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) chief Sharad Pawar, who has lost his party's bid to win the running for the President.

Interestingly, the information that Pawar has refused to be the joint Opposition candidate was conveyed to the public by a CPM (Communist Party of India) general secretary Sitaram Yechury, Pawar met Yechury, CPI general secretary D Raja, and NCP leaders Praful Patel and G Chakraborty and conveyed to him his decision to not contest the election. "I have been informed that Pawar will not be the Opposition face for the presidential polls, other names are under consideration," said Yechury.

The West Bengal chief minister has invited 22 leaders, including her Delhi counterpart Arvind Kejriwal, Finaraj Vijayan of Kerala, Navdeep Singh Surjewala, Telangana's K Chandrababu Naidu, MK Stalin from Tamil

Nadu, Maharashtra's Uddhav Thackeray, Maharashtra CM Hemanth Soren, Bhupendra Patel from Punjab, and Congress interim chief Sonia Gandhi. The CPI (M) chief minister of Kerala is on the list of invitees is significant as Banerjee's rise in West Bengal has been at the cost of the Left party. Many of these leaders are heads of parties whose primary enemy is the Congress. They might not have attended the meeting if the Congress had convened it. Therefore, the attendance sheet becomes significant.

His questioning began at 11:30 am.

After a session of about four hours, Gandhi took a break for about an hour at around 3:30 pm and went home. He rejoined the questioning around 4:30 pm.

In a similar play of events like Monday, the "24" category CDF session, he was invited against the Congress on the footpath of his SUV as the convoy made a dash to the office in the morning. PH

ED quizzes Rahul Gandhi for 2nd day

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi was questioned by the ED for the second consecutive day on Tuesday at the National Herald money-laundering case, with the grand old party calling the agency action vendetta politics of the Centre against opposition leaders.

Gandhi (51) arrived at the Enforcement Directorate (ED) headquarters on April 20 at Kalam Road in central Delhi around 11:05 am, accompanied by his sister and Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra.

His questioning began at 11:30 am. After a session of about four hours, Gandhi took a break for about an hour at around 3:30 pm and went home. He rejoined the questioning around 4:30 pm.

In a similar play of events like Monday, the "24" category CDF session, he was invited against the Congress on the footpath of his SUV as the convoy made a dash to the office in the morning. PH

Judges write to CJI, urge suo motu action on PM demolitions

ADITI PHADNIS
NEW DELHI, 14 JUNE

In an unusual move, several former Supreme Court and high court judges as well as senior advocates have written to the Chief Justice of India, NV Ramana, to intervene suo motu in the wake of incidents of violence and repression by state authorities on citizens.

While such a letter has been written to the prime minister in the past by retired bureaucrats (providing a counter-campaign by other bureaucrats in support of the government), it is unusual for former judges to flag political issues.

The letter comes a day after Jamiat Ulama-i-Hind approached the Supreme Court for a stay on demolition of properties carried out by the Uttar Pradesh government against those arrested for causing violent protests last week. They were protesting against the derogatory remarks made about Prophet Muhammad by Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) leaders Nupur Sharma and Kumar Jindal. Following international outrage against the remarks, the BJP suspended Sharma and expelled Jindal.

The UP police arrested more than 300 people and registered FIRs against those protesting and engaging in stone-pelting.

The letter said: "Videos of young men in police custody being beaten with lathis, houses of protesters being demolished without notice or any cause of action, and protesters from the minority Muslim community being chased and beaten by the police, are circulating on social media, shaking the conscience of the nation."

Twelve former judges and senior lawyers have signed the letter and have asked the Supreme Court to intervene to stop the "demolishing law and order" situation in Uttar Pradesh.

The letter says that the retired former Supreme Court judges who have signed the letter are Justice B. Sudashan Reddy, Justice V. Gopal Gowda and Justice AG Ganguly. Justice AP Shah (former chief justice of Delhi High Court and former chairperson, Law Commission of India); Justice K Chandru (former judge of Madras High Court); Justice Mohammed Anwar (former judge of Karnataka High Court); and a host of senior advocates in the Supreme Court, including Shanti Bhushan, Indira Jaising, Chander Uday Singh, Prashant Bhushan, and Anand Grover.

The letter says instead of giving protesters an opportunity of being heard while engaged in peaceful protests, the state administration has sanctioned taking violent action against such individuals.

"The CM has reportedly officially exhorted officials to stop the 'demolishing law and order' situation in Uttar Pradesh," the letter says.

so that no one commits a crime or takes law into their hands in the future. He has further directed that the National Security Act, 1980, and the Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986, be invoked against those found guilty of unlawful protests. It is these remarks that have emboldened the police to brutally and unlawfully terrorise protesters," the letter reads.

The letter states that the state administration has sanctioned taking violent action against such individuals. "The CM has reportedly officially exhorted officials to stop the 'demolishing law and order' situation in Uttar Pradesh," the letter says.

RBI slams banks for failing to comply with instructions

ABHINAV LELE
Mumbai, 14 June

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Tuesday came down heavily on banks for failing to strictly comply with its prudential guidelines for financing infrastructure and housing projects of government-owned entities.

It asked banks to follow the regulator's instructions on aspects like assessing commercial viability, revenue streams, and the end use of funds in "letter and spirit".

The RBI said it had come across instances where banks had not been strictly complying with instructions on assessing commercial viability and revenue streams for debt-service obligations. It also flagged the lack of adherence to rules about the end use of funds given to infrastructure/housing projects of government-owned entities.

THE CENTRAL BANK MUST FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS IN 'LETTER AND SPIRIT'

Banks and financial institutions have been found to violate instructions that require that in the case of projects undertaken by government-owned entities, term loans should be sanctioned only for corporate bodies.

Due diligence should be carried out on the viability and bankability of the projects to ensure that the revenue stream is sufficient to take care of debt-service obligations. The repayment/servicing of debts should not be from budgetary resources, the RBI said.

Banks are advised to carry out a review and place before their boards a comprehensive report on the status of compliance with the instructions within three months, the RBI added.

The government has nominated Mahindra & Mahindra group Chairman Anand Mahindra, TVS Motor Chairman Venu Srinivasan, Zyklus Lifesciences Chairman Pankaj Patel, and Ravindra Dholakia, a former professor of Indian Institute of Ahmedabad, as part-time non-official directors on the central board of Reserve Bank of India (RBI).

Dholakia was earlier a member of the six-member monetary policy committee (MPC) of RBI, which sets the interest rate. The appointments are for four years and start Tuesday. RBI board members do not engage themselves in monetary policy matters, but provide a broader vision for the central bank.

"The central government has nominated Anand Mahindra, Venu Srinivasan, Pankaj Ramnath Patel and Ravindra Dholakia, a former professor of Indian Institute of Ahmedabad, as part-time non-official directors on the Central Board of RBI, for a period of four years with effect from June 14, 2022 or until further orders, whichever is earlier," RBI said.

The RBI central board has 11 members, excluding Tuesday's appointments. Tata Sons chairman Natarajan Chandrasekaran is among members whose term ended recently.

Banerjee to host Oppn meet to discuss Presidential polls

ADITI PHADNIS
New Delhi, 14 June

West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee will host an Opposition conclave to discuss strategy for the upcoming Presidential elections and other issues — where the Congress will be only a bit player — at 3 pm on Wednesday.

President Ram Nath Kovind's tenure ends on July 24. Elections will be held on July 18 for the next President and counting, if required, on July 21.

The conclave will be attended by Congress leaders Mallikarjun Kharge, Jairam Ramesh, and Randeep Singh Surjewala, as well as Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) chief Sharad Pawar, who has lost his party's bid in the running for the President.

Interestingly, the information that Pawar has refused to be the joint Opposition candidate was conveyed to the public by CPI(M) General Secretary Sitaram Yechury. Pawar met Yechury, CPI general secretary D Raja, and PGP leaders Praful Patel and P C Chackraborty in Delhi and conveyed to him his decision to not contest the election. "I have been informed that Pawar will be the joint Opposition candidate for the presidential polls, other names are under consideration," said Yechury.

The West Bengal chief minister has invited 22 leaders, including her Delhi counterpart Arvind Kejriwal, Pinarayi Vijayan of Kerala, Navan Patakshi from Odisha, Telangana's ChandraSekhar Rao, MK Stalin from Tamil

Nadu, Maharashtra's Uddhav Thackeray, Jharkhand CM Hemant Soren, Bhagwant Mann from Punjab, and Congress interim chief Sonia Gandhi. The CPI (M) chief minister of Kerala is on the list of invitees is significant as Banerjee's rise in West Bengal has been at the cost of the Left party. Many of these leaders are heads of parties whose primary enemy is the Congress. They might not have attended the meeting if the Congress had convened it. Therefore, the attendance sheet becomes significant.

ED quizzes Rahul Gandhi for 2nd day

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi was questioned by the ED for the second consecutive day on Tuesday in the National Herald money-laundering case, with the grand old party calling the agency action vendetta politics of the Centre against opposition leaders.

Gandhi (55) arrived at the Enforcement Directorate (ED) headquarters on April 20 in Delhi around 11:05 am, accompanied by his sister and Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra.

His questioning began at 11:30 am. After a session of about four hours, Gandhi took a break for about an hour at around 3:30 pm and went home. He rejoined the questioning around 4:30 pm.

In a similar play of events, Monday, the "T2" category RPT security personnel of Gandhi handed over the footboard of his SUV as the convoy made a dash to the office in the morning. PTI

Judges write to CJI, urge suo motu action on UP demolitions

ADITHYAN
New Delhi, 14 June

In an unusual move, several former Supreme Court and high court judges as well as senior advocates have written to the Chief Justice of India, NV Ramana, to intervene suo motu in the wake of incidents of violence and repression by state authorities on citizens.

While such a letter has written to the prime minister in the past by retired bureaucrats (provoking a counter-campaign by other bureaucrats in support of the government), it is unusual for former judges to flag political issues.

The letter comes a day after Jamiat Ulama-e-Hind approached the Supreme Court for a stay on demolition of properties carried out by the Uttar Pradesh government against those arrested for carrying violent protests last week. They were protesting against the derogatory remarks made about Prophet Muhammad by Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) leaders Nupur Sharma and Navin Kumar Jindal. Following international outcry against the remarks, the BJP suspended Sharma and expelled Jindal.

The UP police arrested more than 300 people and registered FIRs against those protesting and engaging in stone pelting. The letter said: "Videos of young men in police custody being beaten with lathis, houses of protesters being demolished without notice or any cause of action, and protestors from the minority Muslim community being chased and beaten by the police, are circulating on social media, shaking the conscience of the nation."

"Twelve former judges and senior lawyers have signed the letter and have asked the Supreme Court to intervene to stop the 'deteriorating law and order situation' in Uttar Pradesh. The retired former Supreme Court judges who have signed the letter are Justice B. Sudarshan Reddy, Justice V. Gopala Gowda and Justice AK Ganguly. Justice AP Shah (former chief Justice of Delhi High Court and former chairman, Law Commission of India); Justice K Chandru (former judge of Madras High Court); Justice Mohammed Anwar (former judge of Karnataka High Court); and a host of senior advocates in the Supreme Court, including Sanjay Bhushan, Indira Jaising, Chander Uday Singh, Prashant Bhushan, and Anand Grover.

The letter says instead of giving protestors an opportunity of being heard and to engage in peaceful protests, the state administration has sanctioned illegal violent action against peaceful protesters.

The GM has reportedly officially exhorted officials to "take such action against those guilty that it sets an example

so that no one commits a crime or takes law into their hands in the future. He has further directed that the National Security Act, 1980, and the Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986, be invoked against those found guilty of unlawful protests. It is these remarks that have emboldened the police to brutally and unlawfully torture protesters," the letter reads.

The letter states that: pursuant to the statement of the chief minister, more than 300 persons have been arrested and FIRs registered against protesting citizens. "Such a brutal clampdown by a ruling administration is an unacceptable subversion of the rule of law and a violation of the rights of citizens, and may lead to a mockery of the constitution and fundamental rights guaranteed by the state," the former judges and senior advocates said.

INFRA LOANS TO GOVT ENTITIES

RBI slams banks for failing to comply with instructions

ABHIJIT LEE
Mumbai, 14 June

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Tuesday came down heavily on banks for failing to strictly comply with prudential norms for financing infrastructure and housing projects of government-owned entities.

It asked banks to follow the regulator's instructions on aspects like assessing commercial viability, revenue streams, and the end use of funds in "letter and spirit".

The RBI said it had come across instances where banks had not been strictly complying with instructions on assessing commercial viability and ascertaining revenue streams for debt-service obligations. It also flagged the lack of adherence to rules about monitoring the end use of funds given to infrastructure/housing projects of government-owned entities.

Banks and financial institutions have been found to violate instructions that require that in the case of projects undertaken by government-owned entities, term loans should be sanctioned only for corporate bodies.

Due diligence should be carried out on the viability and bankability of the projects to ensure that the revenue stream is sufficient to service the debt obligations. The repayment/servicing of debt should not be from budgetary resources, the RBI said.

Banks are advised to carry out a review and place before their boards a comprehensive report on the status of compliance with the instructions within three months, the RBI added.

The government has nominated Mahindra & Mahindra group Chairman Anand Mahindra, TVS Motor Chairman Venu Srinivasan, Zyklus Lifesciences' Chairman Pankaj Patel, and Ravindra Dhoolakia, a former professor of Indian Institute of Ahmedabad, as part-time non-official directors on the central board of Reserve Bank of India (RBI).

Dhoolakia was earlier a member of the six-member monetary policy committee (MPC) of RBI, which sets the interest rate. The appointments are for four years and start Tuesday. RBI board members do not engage themselves in monetary policy matters, but provide a broader vision for the central bank.

The central government has nominated Anand Mahindra, Venu Srinivasan, Shri Pankaj Ramnabhai Patel and Ravindra D. Dhoolakia as part-time non-official Directors on the Central Board of RBI, for a period of four years with effect from June 14, 2022 or until further orders, whichever is earlier, RBI said.

The RBI central bank has 11 members, excluding Tuesday's appointments. Tata Sons chairman Natarajan Chandrasekaran is among members who were inducted recently.

Banerjee to host Oppn meet to discuss Presidential polls

ADITYA PHADNIS
New Delhi, 14 June

West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee will host an Opposition conclave to discuss strategy for the upcoming Presidential elections and other issues—where the Congress will be only a bit player—at 3 pm on Wednesday.

President Ram Nath Kovind's tenure ends on July 24. Elections will be held on July 18 for the next President and counting, if required, on July 21.

The conclave will be attended by Congress leaders Mallikarjun Kharge, Jairam Ramesh, and Randeep Singh Surjewala, as well as Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) chief Sharad Pawar, who has said his party is not in the running for the President.

Interestingly, the information that Pawar has refused to be the joint Opposition candidate was conveyed to the public by CPI(M) General Secretary Sitaram Yechury. Pawar met Yechury, CPI general secretary D Raja, and NCP leaders Praful Patel and P. Chacko in Delhi and conveyed to him his decision to not contest the election. I have been informed that Pawar will not be the Opposition face for the presidential polls, other names are under consideration, said Yechury.

The West Bengal chief minister has invited 22 leaders, including her Delhi counterpart Arvind Kejriwal, Pinarayi Vijayan of Kerala, Navan Patnaik from Odisha, T. K. Adityan from Tamil Nadu, Maharashtra's Uddhav Thackeray, Jharkhand CM Hemant Soren, Bhagwant Mann from Punjab, and Congress in-form chief Surjit Singh Gandhi. The CPI (M) chief minister of Kerala on the list of invitees is significant as Banerjee's rise in West Bengal has been at the cost of the Left party. Many of these leaders are arch-rivals of parties whose primary enemy is the Congress. They might not have attended the meeting if the Congress had convened it. Therefore, the attendance sheet becomes significant.

Justice AP Shah (former chief Justice of Delhi High Court and former chairman, Law Commission of India); Justice K. The letter says instead of giving protesters an opportunity of being heard and to engage peaceful protests, the state administration has sanctioned taking violent action against such individuals.

ED quizzes Rahul Gandhi for 2nd day

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi was questioned by the ED for the second consecutive day on Tuesday in the National Herald money-laundering case, with the grand old party calling the agency action a vendetta politics of the Centre against opposition leaders.

Gandhi (58) arrived at the Enforcement Directorate (ED) headquarters on April 14, 2022, accompanied by his sister and Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra.

His questioning began at 11:30 am.

After a session of about four hours, Gandhi took a break for an hour at around 3:30 pm and went home. He rejoined the questioning around 5:30 pm. In a similar play of events last Monday, the "A" category CRP security personnel of Gandhi handed on the footboard of his SUV as the convoy made a dash to the office in the morning. PTI

Judges write to CJI, urge suo motu action on UP demolitions

ADITYA PHADNIS
New Delhi, 14 June

In an unusual move, several former Supreme Court and high court judges as well as senior advocates have written to the Chief Justice of India, NV Ramana, to intervene suo motu in the wake of incidents of violence and repression by state authorities on citizens.

While such a letter has been written to the prime minister in the past by retired bureaucrats (provoking a counter-campaign by other bureaucrats in support of the government), it is unusual for former judges to flag political issues.

The letter comes a day after Jamiat Ulama-i-Hind approached the Supreme Court for a stay on demolition of properties carried out by the Uttar Pradesh government against those arrested for protesting violent protests last week. They were protesting against the derogatory remarks made about Prophet Muhammad by Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) leaders Nupur Sharma and Naveen Kumar Jindal. Following international outcry, the BJP suspended Sharma and expelled Jindal.

The UP police arrested more than 300 people and registered FIRs against those protesting and engaging in stone-pelting.

The letter said: "Videos of young men in police custody being beaten with lathis, houses of protesters being demolished without notice or any cause of action, and protestors from the minority Muslim community being chased and beaten by the police, are circulating on social media, shaking the conscience of the nation."

Twelve former judges and senior lawyers have signed the letter and have asked the Supreme Court to intervene to stop the "deteriorating law and order situation" in Uttar Pradesh. The retired former Supreme Court judges who have signed the letter are Justice B. Sudarshan Reddy, Justice V. Gopala Gowda and Justice AK Gopalu. Justice AP Shah (former chief Justice of Delhi High Court and former chairman, Law Commission of India); Justice K. Chandru (former judge of Madras High Court); Justice Mohammed Anwar (former judge of Karnataka High Court); and a host of senior advocates in the Supreme Court, including Shanti Bhushan, Indira Jaising, Chandrayudh Singh, Prashant Bhushan, and Anand Grover.

The letter says instead of giving protesters an opportunity of being heard and to engage peaceful protests, the state administration has sanctioned taking violent action against such individuals.

"The CM has reportedly officially exhorted officials to take such action against those guilty that it sets an example

so that no one commits a crime or takes law into their hands in the future. He has further directed that the National Security Act, 1980, and the Uttar Pradesh Criminals and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986, be invoked against those found guilty of unlawful protests. It is these remarks that have emboldened the police to illegally and unlawfully torture protesters," the letter reads.

The letter states that: pursuant to the statement of the chief minister, more than 300 persons have been arrested and "illegally and unlawfully tortured protesters," the letter reads.

"Such a brutal clampdown by a ruling administration is an unacceptable subversion of the rule of law and a violation of the rights of citizens, and makes a mockery of the Constitution and fundamental rights guaranteed by the state," the former judges and senior advocates said.

অভিনেতার জীবনাবসান

শুভময় চট্টোপাধ্যায়

আজকালের প্রতিবেদন

প্রয়াত হলেন অভিনেতা, গীতিকার, চিত্রনাট্যকার শুভময় চট্টোপাধ্যায়। স্মৃতি গলায় হওয়া একটি টিউমারজনিত সমস্যায় ভুগছিলেন তিনি। তার চিকিৎসা করাতেই ভর্তি হন বাইপাসের ধারে এক হাসপাতালে। সেখানেই হৃদযন্ত্র বিকল হয়ে মারা গেলেন মঙ্গলবার সকালে। এদিনই বিকেলে তাঁর শেষকৃত্য সম্পন্ন হয় কেওড়াতলা মহাশ্মশানে। দক্ষিণ কলকাতার পল্লীশ্রী অঞ্চলের বাসিন্দা সদাশ্যামায় শুভময়ের মৃত্যুকালে বয়স হয়েছিল ৬১ বছর। পেশাগত জীবনে তিনি ছিলেন কলকাতা দুর্যশনের কর্মী। গত বছর ফ্লোর ম্যানেজার পদে থাকাকালীন অবসর নেন। অভিনয় ছিল তাঁর পাশাপাশি। বাংলা ধারাবাহিকের পরিচিত মুখ ছিলেন তিনি। ‘রাসমণি’তে এক সম্মানী বা ‘জয় জগন্নাথ’-এ পণ্ডিতের চরিত্রে অভিনয় করে জনপ্রিয় হয়েছিলেন। ছিলেন ‘সৌদামিনীর সংসার’ ধারাবাহিকেও। তবে ‘মহালয়া’ সিনেমায় পঙ্কজ মল্লিকের চরিত্রে তাঁর ভরতী নগার অভিনয় তাঁকে পরিচিতি এনে দেয়। ‘হেরকুশ’ নামে এক ছোট ছবিতে নাম ভূমিকায় অভিনয় করেন তিনি। ‘চোলাই’ নামে চলচ্চিত্রের চিত্রনাট্য লিখে পুরস্কারও পান জাতীয় স্তরে। এর বাইরে লিখেছেন, গেয়েছেন অসংখ্য গান নানা ধারাবাহিকে।

রোদ্রর রায়ের ফের পুলিশ হেফাজত

অসভ্য ইউটিউবার রোদ্রর রায়কে নতুন মামলায় পুলিশ হেফাজতে পাঠানোর নির্দেশ দিয়েছে ব্যাঙ্কশাল আদালত। গত বছরের ঘটনা। গত বছরের ৪ জুন বড়তলা থানায় এক্সআইআর করা হয়। তার ভিত্তিতে ২০ জুন পর্যন্ত ফের পুলিশ হেফাজতে রাখার নির্দেশ দেয় আদালত। সরকারি কৌশল দীপঙ্কর কুণ্ডু এবং সঞ্জয় সিং জানান, পাটুলি এবং লোক থানাতেও তার বিরুদ্ধে মামলা হয়েছে। হোয়ার স্ট্রিট থানার মামলাতেই তাকে ফের পুলিশ হেফাজতে পাঠান আদালত।

দাসপুরে গরমে মৃত্যু

দাসপুরের ডিহিপলাশা গ্রামে মঙ্গলবার স্থানীয় গ্রাম পঞ্চায়েতে উদ্যোগে চলা একশতা দিনের কাজে মাটি কাটার কাজ করছিলেন শ্রমিক দলীল সামন্ত (৭০)। দুপুরে তীব্র তাপদাহ সহ্য করতে না পেরে অসুস্থ হয়ে পড়েন। তাকে দাসপুর হাসপাতালে নিয়ে যাওয়া হয়ে, চিকিৎসকরা মৃত বলে ঘোষণা করেন। এদিন ৪৫ জন শ্রমিক কাজ করছিলেন।
